WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

[From the New York Express.]

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The Radicals report majorities in the Counties of Pennsylvania to have been—Radical, 41,391; Democratic, 30,455—giving a Radical majority of 10,846. The Democratic estimates give the Radicals only 2,044 majority, which is more likely nearest the truth. The Radicals figure a majority for themselves of fifteen thousand in Ohio, but the returns, as far as we have them, (they are yet imperfect) reduce that to 12,419. The Radicals claim Indiana by any number ranging between 3,000 and 5,000; while at this writing (Oct. 16) telegraphic dispatches claim that a gain of 5,000 votes in 37 Counties, not heard from, will elect Hendricks (Dem.) Governor. The Democrats claim a gain of 14,031 in 75 Counties, leaving 17 (which give usually Radical majorities) to be heard from. These estimates are from special dispatches. Our own impression is (taking the latest press dispatches for a guide,) that the State has gone Radical by about 1,500; Nebraska (from whence no reliable returns are as yet reported,) is claimed by both parties. From the meagre information we have received from there we think it probable that State has been carried by a very small Democratic majority; as to all of the ticket except the Congressman.

In the four States (as heard from, and admitting Taffee, [Rad.,] of Nebraska, to be elected,) the Radicals admit a loss of seven Congressmen and a gain of one. In Indiana, Niblack, Holman, and Verbees (1st and 9th Dists.) have certainly been elected. In Ohio, Gen. Morgan, whom they kicked out of the last House, is elected to take his seat there again.

Upon the whole the skies are brighter today than yesterday. In Pennsylvania the returns demonstrate that but for the denial of lawful suffrage to thousands of white men there, who had the misfortune to be born abroad, the State would be Democratic. As it is, the 18,000 majority claimed by the Republicans will be reduced one-half, and in the estimation of many three-fourths. We give up the State by 7,000 or 8,000, and at least 10,000 Democrats in the State were cheated out of the ballot. A letter from Philadelphia confirms what we foretold two days before the election, and says:—"At Harrisburg and Pittsburg persons naturalized in Radical Courts in September were hunted from the polling precincts, and measures have been taken to seek redress at law for the outrage."

"I know of a squad of two hundred Radicals in your city who came here, voted as often as they could, and escaped just in time to avoid arrest."

A dispatch from Ohio give us the modus operandi of the election there:

CLEVELAND, Oct. 14.—We have lost the State by the votes of negroes and carpet-baggers from New York and Michigan.—At least eight thousand negroes voted—one-half upon the Reserve. A large number of men from Michigan were detected voting in the ninth and tenth districts, while Ashtabula and Lake counties were overrun with Western New Yorkers. On a fair vote Ohio would have given a large Democratic majority. The Democracy are not discouraged, but will go to work with renewed energy for the contest in November. The defeat of Eggleston, Cooper, Gibson and Ashley, causes great rejoicing among the people.

Madison	..	19	..	4
West Hartford	..	45	..	1
Norwalk	..	149	15	..
Litchfield	68	..	104	..
Clinton	..	80	50	..

Upon this showing the State is as safe for the Democratic ticket as it was for English last year.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.—In addition to the series of changes which have been already noticed as proposed by the Spanish Junta in the existing institutions of that country, it is now announced that, having proclaimed religious liberty, the junta have seized the property of the Jesuits and peremptorily abolished the order in Spain, and have also taken ground in favor of the suppression of all religious corporations. This order originated in Spain three centuries ago, but it has been repeatedly suppressed in that country, as in other nations of Europe. During the Spanish revolution of 1820 they were banished, but were restored with Ferdinand in 1823. Queen Christina suppressed the order in Spain in 1835, and in 1810 its last house was dissolved by order of the provisional regency, but they again succeeded in establishing themselves in 1844. The rivalry of other orders, and charges of political interference, have heretofore been among the alleged causes of their suppression in Europe, but we are not aware that their abolition has been before considered an exemplification of the principles of religious liberty.

The principle, as we understand and practice it in the United States, is toleration of all and favor to none; so that there would seem to be some confusion of ideas either in the Junta or in those who report their action, as to what religious liberty is. It would be consistent to segregate the State from all religious denominations, and to deprive one and all of the power of interfering with political affairs, but to single out one order or denomination for abolition, in the name of freedom of conscience, is difficult to understand in the United States, where we place all on the same platform of isolation from the State, and, by removing all capacity in any for secular aggrandizement, find it safe to tolerate all orders and all creeds. It is to be hoped that the provisional government of Spain, in its zeal for reform and progress, may not be led by a want of comprehension of the true principles of religious freedom to introduce elements of discord which may impede the great work of political and material regeneration which they now have it in their power by wise and judicious counsels to advance.

Indiana, as a State, is lost, if lost at all, by from 1000 to 3,000 votes only, and by fraudulent votes. The people of the United States are most patient in the face of such outrages. The majority of white men of the country are largely Democratic, but are compelled to submit to despotic civil power and to a military rule of the most expensive army, for its numbers, in the world.—N. Y. Express.

NORTH CAROLINA!

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

Losses paid in 30 days.
No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE.
No extra charge for Females

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,731, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,674.

The difference between these sums ($3,977) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against; and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$14.92	$31.10	45	$26.67	$34.63

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan a greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium after the third annual payment.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing YOUR State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL. MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO! AND THE BETTER IT TASTES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LIGHTNING BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

We lay before the readers of the Intelligencer, this morning, the following significant article of the New York World. We are convinced that the Democratic party seek only the restoration of the Constitution of 1789. In putting forward a ticket in the present temper of the country, we have always maintained, they should have kept in view the fact that the Republicans were divided in sentiment upon the measures of reconstruction as well as upon finance. It is unquestionably true that the Republicans, before the adoption of those measures, constituted a majority of the Northern people. In putting up a ticket, then, sound policy and patriotism commanded that the Democrats should distinctly recognize as within the pale of their organization all who opposed the measures, to which we have referred. The New York Convention thought otherwise, and nominated Governor Seymour and General Blair. Those nominations, we admit, were judicious enough, if the object alone was to maintain the integrity of the Democratic party. But we had again and again declared that the preservation of the Union, under the authority of its organic law, was the grand purpose we had in view in entering upon the canvass of 1868. As a minority could avail little in such a work policy and sound principles demanded nominations which would draw largely from Conservatives of all parties. That demand was not heeded; but it is in full force, and now is the time to obey it.

Let those upon whom the Convention of the party conferred the great honor of its confidence rise to the height of the great occasion; and then consulting their exalted patriotism, let the National Executive Committee execute the trust reposed in them by the people without fear, and with no other sentiment than devotion to the country and the Constitution.—Nat. Intelligencer.

There may be much propriety and force in what the Intelligencer says, as to the duty of the National Democratic Convention at New York. In view of the situation, it would have been wise for the Convention to have constructed its platform and to have nominated its candidates, looking to the large number of moderate men in the North, who had been recently acting with the Republican party, but who were evidently worried with and opposed to its Radicalism, if it could honestly have done so, having regard, first, to the salvation of the country, and, through that, the restoration of the Democratic party to power.—But it must be remembered the Convention did not act hastily. It took time for deliberation. Whether the influences and the efforts made in favor of particular men and interests, which surrounded the Convention, were favorable to a cool judgment, may well be doubted. In view of that state of things, it might have been best, after the Convention laid down its platform, for it to have adjourned and called the Convention together at a later day, at Cincinnati, to have made the nominations, composed of a sub-delegation or committee appointed by the body. We say, now that a boggle has been produced by the course taken by so-called Democrats and moderate Republicans at the North, it might have been best to have adopted some such policy. But the Convention did not so elect. After a full and careful consideration of the whole matter, it adopted its platform and selected its candidates, by a clear and decided majority of the delegates. No one can call in question that it was a fair nomination; none can doubt, dare doubt, that Seymour and Blair will stand fairly and firmly upon the platform, and that they are both eminently qualified for the positions for which they have been selected. That every man, and every shade of party, and every section, represented in that Convention, were bound not only to acquiesce in, but in all fidelity and honesty to support, the platform and nominees, after they were made, with all their means and efforts, no one can doubt. If there was a man or section represented in that Convention, who did not intend to do so, they ought to have withdrawn from the body and announced their purpose, at once.

Upon the announcement of the platform and nominees, the enthusiasm was general—the endorsement was almost unanimous. The World, and all of those papers now ready to trail their banners in the dust, endorsed them, and, so far as the country knew for two months after, at least, all the elements in the country against Radicalism were enthusiastically combining to elect them triumphantly.

If the World, and the Intelligencer, and others, felt confident at an early day, that those elements opposed to Radicalism could not be combined upon the nominees, why did they not urge a call of the Convention to reconsider its action? It might have been done in August or September, or even as late as the first of October, with safety. Did not the World know, at an early day, that the bondholding and manufacturing interests of New England, of New York, and of Pennsylvania, who were Democrats and moderate Republicans, would not support the platform or the nominees? Did it not know that while the Radicals were pouring their money into Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, to carry the elections, and while money-barons among old Northern Democrats and moderate Republicans were doing the same to aid the Radicals, that many of them were doing scarcely anything to aid Seymour and Blair?—Did it not know, that Mr. Belmont, the Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, could not be seen in New York by the friends of the party, who visited that city for the purpose of consultation, for the last three months? Did it not know that the large flood of letters written to him at New York, by active, working and leading men of the party, were either never noticed, or, at so late a period by some one else, as to be of no avail? Did it not know that while the Radical Committees were flooding the country with printed documents by the million, from Washington City, both North and South, the Democrats of the country have never so much as heard, in many sections, from the Democratic Committee, in the way of documents?

If the Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana elections are so fatal to the prospects of Seymour and Blair, and not fatal to the platform, by what means has it been ascertained? By what course of reasoning can it be shown, that the result would have been otherwise, if we had put up other candidates? We have seen nothing that touches the merits of the question. The reasonings of the World amount simply to special pleading, and furnish an apology for our defeat, but no proof that our defeat is the result of the unpopularity of the platform or its nominees? So far from this, the declarations of the Democratic press, at the North, (and the World is among the number,) go to show that our defeat is owing mainly and chiefly to the large amount of money employed in the election by the Radicals, and the meagre amount used by the Democrats!

We honestly believe that we would do as well with Seymour and Blair, (nay infinitely better, at this late day,) on our present platform, as with any others that could be named. The elections, though discouraging, are not positive evidences of defeat.—The course of the World, and the press which sympathizes with it, have done more harm to the success of the Democratic party, than the elections. A little pluck, a little manly fortitude, a rallying of our forces, and the application of the proper energy, effort and means, even now, WOULD INSURE THE ELECTION OF SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!—A change of front, now, would be disastrous. Let our friends rally for one more united, vigorous effort, and success will perch upon our banners, unless God, in His wisdom, has written down the doom of the Republic!

NORFOLK EDITORS.—During the recent visit of the Associate Editor to Norfolk, he had the pleasure of meeting Col. Lewellyn, of the Norfolk Journal, and Maj. James Barron Hope, of the Virginian, with whom he spent some pleasant moments. Both of these gentlemen are gallant and able representatives of the craft, and we are pleased to learn that the excellent journals, over which they preside, are doing well. We failed to see Mr. Hathaway, of the Day Book, but were gratified to meet our old friend of the quill, C. C. Rabotean, Esq., formerly of this City, who is engaged on that paper.

There will be a grand Democratic and Conservative Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Leaksville, Rockingham Co., on the 24th. Hons. Wm. A. Graham, Bedford Brown and J. M Leach, Dr. Thos. W. Keen, Gen. A. M. Scales, Col. Livingston Brown, P. F. Duffy, Esquire, and other speakers, will probably be present. The Greensboro Brass Band will be in attendance.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—The New York Sun, edited by Mr. Charles A. Dana, formerly Assistant Secretary of War, argues that Mr. Davis will not be tried at the approaching session of the United States Circuit Court in Richmond, and never will be tried. The Sun says:

"The indictments against Jefferson Davis might as well be sold to the paper makers for three cents a pound. They will never be tried. The eloquence of Mr. Evarts will never be wasted on the living skeleton of a defunct Confederacy, with a strong probability of a disagreement of the jury, and a pardon virtually promised beforehand in case of conviction."

THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION AT NORFOLK.

The Associate Editor of this paper had the pleasure of forming one of the large number of delegates, who were in attendance, last week, upon the great Commercial Convention at Norfolk. The organization of the Convention has been already noticed in our columns, with such of its proceedings as had then transpired, and we have heretofore detailed the great objects of its assemblage.

The number of delegates present has been correctly estimated at between 2,500 and 3,000, representing Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Alabama and Kentucky, with, perhaps, an occasional delegate from some other State. Among them were many men of mark—men who have heretofore figured prominently in commercial and political circles. The spirit which pervaded the body was of the most enthusiastic character,—augering, unmistakably, the ultimate success of the important enterprise which it had assembled to promote, viz: the establishment of direct trade and communication between the great interior, South, and Liverpool, with Norfolk as a great outlet of Commerce,—a destiny for which it is eminently fitted by the grandest natural advantages, and by the energy and public spirit of its merchants and people, generally. To employ a word which grates harshly, from its abuse, on Southern ears, it was a great work of reconstruction in which the Convention, embodying so much of the intelligence and worth of the Southern people, was engaged,—not a reconstruction designed to oppress any man or class of men,—not a reconstruction based on the narrow schemes of faction or grounded in the malignant and mercenary purposes of party,—but that practical reconstruction which looks to the development of our resources, the reparation of our waste places, and the bringing to the notice of the world the wonderful capabilities of the South.—We are gratified to be able to state that much was done, though much yet remains to be done, towards the accomplishment of the purposes of the Convention. It was deemed necessary to the successful inauguration of the immediate enterprise of having a line of first class Steamships to ply between Norfolk and Liverpool, (leaving the accomodation of interior routes to that grand object to be developed by time and circumstances,) that $300,000 should be pledged, with the guarantee of the payment, at once, of 10 per cent. of that amount.—The sum of $180,000, or thereabouts, was subscribed by various individuals and corporations; and though no one was authorized, on the part of North Carolina delegations present, to make a subscription, we hope that the matter will be promptly taken in hand by men of capital and enterprise in our midst. And in this connection, we would remark that if Col. Lamb, or some of the other eloquent and efficient advocates of the great scheme, would visit and address our people, after the elections are over, they might do much for the promotion of the vast interests at stake.

We found Norfolk vastly grown since our last visit to that city, some twelve years ago. The evidences of recuperation, thrift and energy are visible in every direction, and it is most gratifying to witness the unmistakable germ of a great City in the general appearance of enterprise, industry and improvement which greets the eye on all sides. New and elegant private residences abound, and palatial stores, filled with everything elegant, useful or substantial, have been erected. The Commission-Houses along the wharves are evidently doing a good business, and the wharves themselves are the scene of busy life. The people, though true as steel to the great political issues of the hour, in their exclusion from the political contest are devoting themselves nobly and wisely to the building up their material interests.

If we should attempt to speak of the hospitality, public and private, of the citizens, we should come far short of being able to do justice to the subject. The recipient, ourselves, of the most elegant and refined private hospitality, we had, at the same time, an opportunity of witnessing and participating in the various arrangements, which were made, at unstinted expense, for the entertainment of the large crowds that were present. Each day, a bountiful and elegant collation was spread in a Hall rented for the occasion, at which every luxury that money could command was provided. On the night of the first day of the Convention, there was a magnificent display of fireworks; on the night of the second day, a brilliant Ball in Portsmouth, (than which there is no more hospitable place under the sun,) in honor of the Convention, at which there was an array of beauty and the most generous festivity; and, on the night of the third day, a brilliant torch-light procession in Norfolk, in which numbers of business-houses were represented with various emblems and samples of their trade. On Thursday, there was a magnificent parade of the Fire organizations of the two "Cities by the Sea," which was decidedly one of most imposing features of the whole festival, and which indicated a vigorous efficiency in the Department most commendable to either community. On Friday, there was an excursion, participated in by, perhaps, twenty-five hundred ladies and gentlemen, to Fortress Monroe and the Capes, which afforded the islanders an opportunity of seeing what an harbor Norfolk really has and of enjoying the luxury of the invigorating sea air. Stopping at Fortress Monroe, the excursionists were invited within its frowning walls by Gen. Barry, Commandant of the Fortress, where they were entertained by a variety of military evolutions, an inspection of the mammoth ordnance, the delightful performances of the magnificent Band, and in other agreeable ways. The courtesy was gracefully rendered and gratefully accepted.

We have no space to detail more particularly the many charming incidents of this carnival,—for such it was in its uninterrupted succession of pleasurable surprises and enjoyments. We failed to see the individual who was not full of praises of Norfolk,—the hospitality and enterprise of its people, the beauty of its women,—and more impressed than ever before with the immense advantages which it possesses as a great entrepot of Commerce and Trade.—That it has a brilliant future before it, when our national troubles shall be composed, is a logical sequence of the spirit which moves its people and which animated the Commercial Convention.

The Raleigh and Gaston and Seaboard and Roanoke Roads, over which our delegation was passed free of charge, are in splendid running order and managed, throughout, by gentlemanly and efficient officers. The latter Road, in conjunction with the Bay Line, is doing a splendid business, and controlling a vast amount of travel and trade.

A WORD TO THE PEOPLE.

We have, heretofore, intimated, upon the strength of common rumor, that the State authorities had instructed the Registrars Poll-keepers, &c., to have the tickets printed on one ballot for Electors, Members of Congress and Members of the Legislature, all to be voted in one box. This plan is contrary to law, and we now learn, from good authority, that the State authorities have issued no such order, and will not do so.

The following opinion, from several legal gentlemen in this city, ought to satisfy every one, that it is illegal to put all the names in one box, and that such a course will vitiate the election. We therefore call upon the people, Registrars, Poll-holders, &c., to hold the election according to law. No body has a right to order any other course than the law points out. There should be a box for Electoral tickets, one for members of Congress, and one for members of Legislature.

For convenience, the printers may print them together and they will cost less, but every voter can easily cut them apart.—Read the following:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 19th, 1868.

In our view there is nothing in the Ordinances of the late Convention, or in the acts of the last session of the General Assembly, that repeals the provisions of law heretofore in force as regards the number of boxes required in case candidates for different offices are voted for at the same place and on the same day.

We are therefore of opinion that at the approaching election the candidates for Congress, for Electors of President, and for such vacancies in the General Assembly as may exist, should be voted for in separate boxes,—one box or one set of boxes for each office.

THE GREAT MASS MEETING AT HALIFAX—A GLORIOUS OCCASION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have just returned from our grand and glorious mass meeting at Halifax, on the 15th., which was a complete success in every sense.

The unfavorable weather, which was threatening and blustering throughout the day, and the unfavorable election news from the North, seemed to encourage, rather than dampen, the enthusiastic ardor of the thousands who thronged the speakers' stand, from 10 o'clock, A. M. until 5 in the afternoon.

It is not my purpose, in this note, to give you an account of the meeting, but for fear that you may not be furnished the details, I will simply give you the leading points, which you can fix up in presentable shape, if you are not favored with a fuller detail.

There was an immense concourse of the true men of old Halifax—fully two thousand—estimated by some at twenty-five hundred.

There was a magnificent Brass Band, one of the best I have ever listened to.

There was a splendid Barbecue—plenty for all and to spare.

The speakers were Judge Biggs, Colonels Cowan and Jenkins, S. T. Williams, Esq., Maj. J. A. Engelhard and Gen. M. W. Ransom, respectively, who were enthusiastically applauded.

Numbers of ladies of Halifax were present.

It was, on the whole, a grand and glorious affair. The cause of Seymour and Blair received a fresh impetus.

BISHOP ATKINSON, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15, 1868.

To the Editors Enquirer and Examiner:

The Enquirer and Examiner of the 10th instant contains the following statement:

"The late Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont, a deceased Ritualist, was the leader of the party. Since his death it has been led by Bishop Atkinson, of North Carolina; Potter, of New York; McCloskey, of Michigan; Whitehouse, of Illinois; Williams, of Connecticut; Whittingham, of Maryland, and Kip, of California."

While I think you are mistaken as to the opinions of several of the Bishops above named, knowing the views of Bishop Atkinson, and feeling at liberty to speak for him, I have no hesitation in saying you have fallen into error in classing him as a Ritualist.

The extravagances marking that small party in the church, known as Ritualists, have no attractions for Bishop Atkinson, and though he declined to unite in the "Declaration" condemnatory of them, his refusal to do so was caused by his sense of the inexpediency of that publication, and not because of sympathy with the Ritualistic movement.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to an attractive announcement, this morning. W. Robt. Now is the time to lay in Winter supplies.

On s, Hams, Lard, Bagging, Sugars and Coffees: G. T. Stronach, Market Square.

NORFOLK ADVERTISEMENTS.—We have the pleasure of calling attention to several new advertisements from the City of Norfolk, in our issue of to-day:

See the Card of J. N. Bell & Bro., (Successors to Alexander Bell,) General Commission Merchants, Bell's Wharf: We take very great pleasure in commending to our North Carolina public this responsible and energetic Firm. The gentlemen composing it are the sons of that venerable and estimable Merchant of Norfolk, the late Alexander Bell, and inherit all of their father's energy and worth. We can assure our farmers and merchants that they cannot do better than consign to this excellent and every way reliable Firm.

Our friend, A. Myers, formerly of Salisbury,) may be found at No. 6 Commerce Row, Ferry Wharf, where he has opened a first-class House, as a Wholesale Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Liquors. Mr. Myers has all the energy and advantages necessary for the business which he has commenced under favorable auspices, and his establishment is being fitted up in superior style.—We probably need not commend him to the North Carolina trade, as his own residence and former pursuits in the State have given him a general acquaintance with the people. One thing is certain, none of them need go beyond him to get what they require in his line.

White, Neal & Co., Liverpool, and Jno. B. Neal & Co., Norfolk, General Commission Merchants and Cotton Factors, again appear in our columns. These joint Houses possess the most superior facilities for consignors, and are conducted with the finest energy.—We take this occasion to say that Mr. Neal, of the Norfolk Firm, will supply German laborers, of the most industrious class, to planters and others, and we commend his counsel and agency in this matter to our people. Our farmers would do well to consult with him.

REGISTRATION.

Registration in this City has been progressing four days,—resulting, so far, in the enrolment of about 800 negroes and between 250 and 300 whites. Many of the whites are not registering, until the crowd of negroes have gotten through, and yet many others who, at the last election, registered in Raleigh, are now registering, very properly, in the country. Many negroes are coming from various parts of the county to register here, and many, both of the City and county, have been prevented from fraudulently registering, by the vigilance of our challengers.

Surely, we need not urge the duty of registration upon our white people. We repeat, what we have heretofore said, that it it hardly of secondary importance to national success that we shall carry North Carolina. We will certainly carry North Carolina, if we do our duty—REGISTER AND VOTE! To the work, then, gallant men of North Carolina, and victory will crown your efforts!

Y. M. C. A.—There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association at the Session room of the Presbyterian Church, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. A prompt attendance is desirable.

MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE—THE RIGHT SPIRIT.—There will be a grand Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Auburn, in this County, on Tuesday next, 27th inst.—A large crowd is anticipated, as several of the Clubs in this and Johnston Counties have signified their intention to be present en masse. A number of prominent speakers will be in attendance. Hurrah for Auburn, say we! Her gallant Democrats and Conservatives know no such word as fail.—Unawed by recent reverses, they are resolved to do all in their power to redeem North Carolina. It will be done—and if our friends throughout the Union will work, with spirit and with a will, the national battle may yet be won!

SENTENCED.—Alexander Willis, a negro soldier, it will be recollected, murdered a colored man named Anderson Selby, in this City, last winter. Willis was convicted at the Spring Term of the Superior Court.—He prayed an appeal to the Supreme Court, which refused to grant a new trial. Willis was accordingly sentenced, on Saturday last, by "Judge" Watts, to be hanged in this City, on Friday, the 6th of November. We hear that the execution is to be a private one, and to be conducted in the jail-yard.

For interesting matter see first page.—We shall resume our practice of having reading matter on every page.

STATE MATTERS.

Another evidence of the intentions of the Radicals, relative to the negro, has transpired. Jas. M. Turner, the Radical member of the Convention from Harnett, following the example of Holden and Howze, has declared himself in favor of colonizing the negro in Africa. He declared, at Lillington, some days ago, in the presence of a number of persons, that "the negro was gone up, and that the last one of them would go to Africa!" The expression in quotations was his language verbatim, we learn.

The great Mass Meeting in Tarboro', on the 24th., promises to be a great success. The grandest arrangements are being made for the occasion. The fine Regimental Band of the 21st. U. S. Infantry, stationed at Petersburg, will be present.

A large mass meeting is to come off at Oxford, on the 28th. inst. We are glad to see this continued effort, on the part of our people, to carry the State for the Democracy, and do not entertain a doubt but that these efforts will meet with the success they deserve.

The zeal of our friends in Northampton is not abated by the untoward result of the late elections. A mass meeting will come off at Garysburg, on Thursday next, and a mammoth affair at Jackson, on the 30th.

The Weldon News says that "an immense amount of freight is now passing over all the roads running into that place—the trains bound North carrying an immense quantity of naval stores, cotton, produce, lumber, &c., while those coming South are bringing fall goods for the North Carolina and more Southern markets. The quantity of goods being brought through the country this Fall is quite large, and a proportionate quantity of business can be expected over that of last Fall."

The beautiful little steamer Silver Wave—the pioneer on the line of water communication between Norfolk and Weldon,—is now running regularly upon its trips, arriving at and leaving each place three times a week. Workmen are now engaged upon building the wharf at Weldon, and a short time will find all things in readiness for the easy transit of freight to and from the boat. One of the Editors of this paper had the pleasure of seeing this elegant little Steamer, a few days since, at her landing at Weldon. We learn that it is the design of the planters on the river to build tram roads to the wharf, for the purpose of more easy communication. This is a most desirable and important enterprise and promises the best results.

The Messenger, at Goldsboro, has a strong leader in denunciation of the outrages committed by the negro troops at that place.—It says:

"We know that the commissioned officers at this military Post feel that they are ostracised and banned by society, and while they cannot, occupying the position they do, expect anything better from a people whom they are the instruments of humiliating, outraging and insulting; and while we understand enough of human nature to fully appreciate the fact that it is not unnatural for them to experience some feelings of pique at the treatment they receive at the hands of our citizens, yet we are compelled to declare that the manner in which they encourage the bad behavior of these negroes is something more than revenge for social slights—it is demoniacal, infamous, mean and cowardly.

Outrage upon outrage has been reported through the local press, yet the half has not been told. Women, the first ladies of the land, have been insulted, and their modesty shocked by language and conduct that would not be tolerated toward the vilest prostitute, any where in the world, by any man having the slightest regard for the name of woman.

Our sacred places of worship are not more secure from the insults of this demoralized soldiery, than our streets, private enclosures or family firesides. We cannot engage in the worship of God, without having this rabble standing about the doors, indulging in boisterous, indecent and profane language; and our ladies cannot walk the streets without the fear of insult or the humiliation of being crowded off the side walks into the gutter. Our merchants are constantly annoyed by this brave soldiery entering their places of business and obtaining goods for which they refuse to pay, and, when remonstrated with, they are cursed, abused, and in some instances violently assaulted, as was the case a day or two ago. All this comes from that sentiment, imbibed by the negroes, that "white men have no rights that they are bound to respect." Every itinerant radical teacher impresses this upon the negroes, and the soldiers are led to believe it because of the loose discipline which allows them to run riot without the fear of punishment or of official remonstrance even."

"John True, an ex-rebel soldier of this section, hasn't an arm on his body. Both were shaved off in the smoke of battle before this cruel war was over. And yet—today—we saw John True driving a two horse wagon with the reins thrown over the stump of his right shoulder, and he was guiding the horses with his mouth."

CONCORD, Oct. 16, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—I hasten to write you an account of the great doings in our town, on yesterday, in honor of Seymour and Blair and Constitutional Liberty. It does not lie in the province of my pen to do justice to the occasion, however; I can only undertake to describe what was done. I will not attempt to portray the deep feeling and wild enthusiasm that seemed to pervade the entire assembly.

The procession was formed under the direction of Chief Marshal Henderson and his assistants, in the Public Square, and was about half a mile in length. It then proceeded up to the stand, which was most beautifully and tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers. Above it were inscribed, in the form of a triangle, in broad green letters, the words "Peace, Union and Liberty," and these enclosed a picture of the father of his country, which, it seemed to me, looked down with a smile of sad tenderness on this effort of his children to save the country he established. Everything around the stand bore the impress of woman's hands,—they know who are their friends. When all had been seated, (and their name was legion,) Chief Marshal Henderson introduced

Gov. GRAHAM, who arose and proceeded to address the audience. It was the first time I had ever seen him, and my emotions were deep and powerful, when I saw that venerable statesman, who had been the pride of our Republic in its palmier days, stand there and lift his voice in behalf of his country. I will not give you a sketch of his speech. I would do him injustice if I were to attempt it. It was the most powerful speech I think I ever listened to, and fell with crushing weight on Radicalism and its supporters. In his own happy and peculiar style, and as he alone could do it, he portrayed the reckless extravagance and waste of the Radical party in its administration of government, National, State and County. He painted the condition of our land, if these things were suffered to continue, till our hearts grew sick within us. He held up that party to our view and showed us its hideous monstrosity till our souls turned with loathing from it. He told us of our prosperity in former days and pointed out to us how that prosperity might be restored. His speech was argumentative, eloquent and convincing; every word was trenchant as a two-edged sword, and every sentence had the weight of a ton.—He spoke for two hours, being frequently applauded, and I don't think a man left that stand without being more fully determined than ever to do all in his power to save his country.

The Chief Marshal next introduced Mr. Shober, our candidate for Congress, who, in a long and eloquent speech, set forth "the mysteries and miseries" of Radicalism. He showed up our quondam friend Nat. Boyden, Esq., in his true colors and remarked that, on account of his absence, he would not say half that he might have said. His speech was also logical and learned, and he convinced every one that no more worthy standard bearer than himself could have been selected for the 6th Congressional District.

After this we all proceeded down to the barbecue, which was gotten up in magnificent style and reflected great credit on those who did it. It was truly a grand old feast in honor of Seymour and Blair.

At night, another procession was formed, bearing transparencies inscribed with pithy and pointed mottoes, which presented a most beautiful and imposing appearance, as it marched up and down the streets. The wildest enthusiasm animated the crowd.—Cheer on cheer rent the air and old Cabarrus was thoroughly waked up. It again proceeded to the stand where our intelligent and unassuming townsman, Major W. J. Montgomery, was loudly called for and addressed the audience in a peculiarly well timed speech abounding in wit and humor. He was constantly interrupted with bursts of the most rapturous applause.

After him, Col. Long was called for, and made a few pungent remarks, and then Shober, who excused himself,—being, as he said, "pumped dry"—after which the whole heavens were lighted up with the brilliant pyrotechnic display which our friend, Mr. Groner, had prepared for the occasion.

Altogether, it was a day long to be remembered in Cabarrus. There was no disturbance—everything passed off peaceably, (with the exception of a few niggers, headed by a scallawag, who kept crying Grant and Colfax, but whom no one noticed,) although there were over 4,000 people present. We are all right up here, and will roll up a thundering majority, in November, for Seymour and Blair and Shober.

I must not forget to say that the result of the Northern elections, which we heard that morning, did not dampen the ardor of the people at all. Compare this outpouring with the miserable Radical fizzle on the 24th ult., at which about 200 niggers were present, and you can form some idea of the state of feeling among us! J.

To J. M. Schofield, Secretary of War:—

The arms purchased for this State were destroyed by an armed band of men, in the Mississippi river. The boat was captured and the arms thrown overboard. From facts in my possession, I am satisfied that armed resistance to the laws is contemplated,—in which event the United States forces here would be entirely inadequate to preserve order.

(Signed) POWELL CLAYTON,
Gov. of Arkansas.

President Johnson is reported as saying, when the above matter was presented to him, that if the parties had contemplated armed resistance, they would not have destroyed the arms and ammunition on the Hesper.

MORE LAWLESSNESS IN LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19, P. M.

A dispatch was received here, to-day, from Franklin, La., which states that the office of the Attackapagas Register, published in Franklin Parish, was sacked last night. The press was destroyed and scattered. The editors and printers left for New Orleans this morning. The citizens of Franklin and surrounding country are doing all in their power to preserve peace.

The negroes are making very bold threats, but have not made any attempt to carry them into execution. The town Parish is quiet.

The city of Jefferson is much excited over a police imbroglio. A notorious negro, Sandy Packer, was arrested last night, having arms in his possession. He accounted for them, saying that he was an officer of the Metropolitan police guarding the church. During the night, several negroes were arrested, parading the streets armed with rifles, cartridge boxes and ammunition.

Rumors are afloat that the Metropolitans intend to attempt forcible possession, which the existing authorities will resist. The Jefferson authorities, elected at the recent election, are willing to submit to judicial decision, but refuse to surrender otherwise.

Negroes are congregating to-day, at Brashear City, Louisiana, where, it is said, one of the men was assassinated. Arrivals from that place report apprehensions of disturbances, and families of citizens as sent to places of safety—the citizens themselves remaining.

FROM RICHMOND—ARREST—ACCIDENT.

RICHMOND, Oct. 19, P. M.

D. B. Parker, Special Agent of the Post Office Department, last night arrested E. B. Armstead, Disbursing Clerk of the General Post Office Department, who fled from Washington recently—he has been wandering about in the Mountains of Virginia since his flight. Parker leaves for Washington, with the prisoner, this morning.

On the North Carolina Railroad, on Saturday night, near Harrisburg, two trains, one having McGinley's circus on board, collided. Five persons were seriously wounded.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Gov. Z. B. Vance: Sir:—The Seymour and Blair Clubs throughout this county intend holding a Mass Meeting, in the town of Jackson, on Saturday, the 30th instant, and it is their unanimous desire that you will attend and address the meeting upon the political subjects now before the people,—believing an address from you will accomplish more good, in this section of the State, than from any other speaker. As the organ of the Clubs, let us express the hope, common to all the people of this county, that you may find it convenient to attend and address the meeting.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 16, 1868.

Messrs. N. Peebles and others, Committee, &c., Jackson, N. C.:

GENTLEMEN.—Your letter, inviting me to address a mass meeting in your town on the 30th inst., has been received. I regret that I shall not be able to comply. My time is already disposed of either by professional or political engagements up to the day of election.

I regret my inability to attend with you, all the more because the recent elections in the North have a tendency to discourage our friends and cause a relaxation of our efforts. This greatly needs to be counteracted. I do not at all regard the election of Seymour and Blair as hopeless, for various reasons. But even if I did, I frankly confess that I have not been fighting this campaign under the impression that our redemption was to be attained through the instrumentality of the national government. Nor have I labored for a reform in the general government. My great aim has been the regeneration of North Carolina, her redemption from the grasp of the hungry vampires who suck her life's blood and drag down her decent people under the feet of ignorance and corruption. After all, this can only be done by our own State action. It is in the power of the Conservative men of the State to work out their own salvation, let the North vote as it may, whether Grant be President or Seymour. Kentucky shook off her shackles in spite of the despotism of the national Radical rule which was upon her. Maryland did the same, and Georgia is fast accomplishing the glorious task. Virginia and Texas would do so to-morrow, if the bayonet was withdrawn from their throats. So it would be and will be with all of them, for God has not decreed that the ignorant African and the renegade whites shall rule a nobler and superior race longer than the application of superior physical force and its attendant demoralization shall maintain this most unnatural position. It they would but shake off their fear, there is nothing whatever to prevent the true men of North Carolina from carrying the next election by 30,000 majority, without a single recruit from the ranks of those who voted for that infamous Constitution last Spring, and throwing off every negotiable politician in the State with his congeners. Then would begin our redemption. The Radical party was formed and sustained here by the bayonet; it has gathered Swiss recruits—Dalligetys in everything except courage and honesty—for a term of years, by an impression of strength and a power to bestow patronage. Deprived of these supports it will die speedily. It stinks already.

It is entirely in our power, then, to strike down this monstrous concern on the 3rd of November, by the peaceful means of the ballot; and with it goes down the wholesale proscription of intelligence and virtue; armed partizan Militia, to bully, murder and steal; negro domination in all its shapes; endless and intolerable taxation and confiscation of land by pauper Legislatures; drunken, obscene and partizan Judges; leprous carpet-bag Congressmen, Railroad Rings, and a wholesale system of corruption, such as never before afflicted a civilized people! All this we can, if we will, strike down. When you think of it, gentlemen, in Heaven's name, how can you relax one effort or withhold one blow? Here are the real issues; here is the true battle-field of our liberties. And may God forgive the man who flinches, like a poor dastard, now, in the very agony of the struggle. His children will learn to curse his memory, and he will be regarded by a wiser and braver generation, as the betrayer of liberty and civilization.

Very truly yours,
Z. B. VANCE.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war of the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the capitalist, the producer and the soldier, the pensioner and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and wrongs which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without warrant or specific charges or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law. It has converted the American capitol into a Bastile; it has established a system of espionage and official patronage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and has sought to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated usurpations the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should the Radical party succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with it in any manner, is a flagrant usurpation of power which no one has ever attempted to maintain as existing in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress, as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. That our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be deemed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention in Tammany Hall, and that the language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come a speedy change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to overlay, with bayonets, Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule, without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au., 14, 1868.
